The Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in Culinary Arts Management is designed to prepare individuals for management careers in restaurants, food services, hotels, and resorts. This program offers associate degree culinary arts graduates with an educational opportunity that will lead to a bachelor degree with additional knowledge of management and culinary arts.

This upper-division degree completion provides seamless transfer opportunities for students with an AAS degree in Hospitality and Tourism - Culinary Arts.

Program Benefits

- Small Classes at JCC
- Ideal for Adults with Busy Schedules
- Quality Education
- Affordable Price
BBA in Culinary Arts Management

SUNY Cobleskill’s BBA in Culinary Arts Management at JCC is designed for working adult learners. Community college credits are transferred into the degree completion. SUNY Cobleskill’s upper-level courses are offered through a combination of course delivery methods. The cohort of students starts and moves through the program together.

Admissions Requirements

The BBA program is ideally suited for those who hold an AAS degree in Hospitality & Tourism-Culinary Arts, or equivalent 60 credits, with a 2.25 GPA. Prerequisite courses are completed at JCC prior to acceptance.

For more information contact:
Office of Professional and Continuing Education
State University of New York
Cobleskill, NY 12043
518-255-5528
pace@cobleskill.edu
www.cobleskill.edu/pace