

Agricultural Business in HUNGARY – Summer 2014!

including Vienna, Austria

SUNY Cobleskill Faculty-Led Program*

Dates: May 12–21, 2014

Location: Multi-region itinerary

Professors: Jason Evans, Diane Dobry

Application Deadline: January 31, 2014

COURSE: AGBU 270 Field Studies (1 credit). This academic travel program will explore the agricultural businesses, practices and concerns in Hungary with a day trip to Vienna. Through excursions, museums and other site visits to farms, wineries, restaurants and shops, students will learn about the cultural traditions, foods, and social practices of another country, and how its agricultural industry contributes to people's lives and business locally and worldwide.

ELIGIBILITY: Open to SUNY students in good academic standing. PREREQUISITES: None.

HIGHLIGHTS may include:

- * Tour of Budapest—museums, Central Market Hall, Szechenyi Thermal spa, Buda Castle, local cafes, eateries, restaurants and social center, lectures, walking tour of the city, lectures and more.
- * Great Plains region visit to a seed company, orchards, farms and a school of agriculture and engineering; trip to a factory, marketplace, and local retail/food superstores, arboretum walk.
- * Visit to The Alföld (Great Plain) national park where Hungarian grey cattle, stud horses, and buffalo herds graze on open pastures.
- * Wine regions—a wine tasting center in Eger known as Szépasszonyvölgy ("Valley of the Beautiful Women"). Balaton Lake region beaches and wineries.
- * Vienna, Austria—tour of the city, foods, and marketplace, a visit to the Spanish Riding School of the famous Lipizzaner horses.

ESTIMATED COSTS: $2,600–$2,850 per participant. DOES NOT INCLUDE TUITION/FEES (add $250 in-state). Includes group airfare from NYC, hotel/dormitory accommodation, some meals, program-related travel, international health insurance, and excursions/site visits. Participants will be responsible for additional meals ($160–$200), passport expenses, and personal spending money. Passports are required. $300 deposit due upon acceptance. Financial aid may apply.

For more information or to apply, contact:

Jason Evans, Assistant Professor, evansjr@cobleskill.edu

Andrew Lucas, Study Abroad Coordinator lucasAC@cobleskill.edu

*Details including dates, costs, and itinerary items are subject to change.
Estimated Costs based on 25 participants.