

GREECE

Perrotis College - Thessaloniki

October – December
or February - April

12 Undergraduate Credits

Experience real life/real learning at Perrotis College/American Farm School in Thessaloniki, Greece. Perrotis College believes in learning through doing and remains dedicated to integrating theory and practice at all levels of agricultural education. Students studying abroad at this institution will gain significant applied education experience in such fields as food science, biotechnology, agricultural business, business and culinary arts. The program combines campus classroom and laboratory study with visits to enterprises that produce and market products utilizing Greek natural resources. All study is in English.

Estimated Cost

$16,410 NYS Resident

$21,575 Out-of-State Resident
(costs are subject to change)

Eligibility: sophomores and above, minimum 2.75 GPA

Application Deadline

May 1 for Fall and

October 1 for Spring

For More Information & To Apply

international@cobleskill.edu

518.255.5556 • Library 112

cobleskill.edu/studyabroad

SUNY COBLESKILL
AG & TECH
Study Abroad