

Resources

Visit SUNY SAVR at response.suny.edu for state-wide resources in multiple languages.

On-campus

Wellness Center

518-255-5225

Title IX Coordinator

518-255-5229

University Police Department

518-255-5555

Off-campus

Sexual Assault Support Services

518-234-4949 (24 hour hotline)

Domestic Violence

518-234-2231 (24 hour hotline)

Planned Parenthood

518-234-3325

Cobleskill Police Department

518-234-2111 or "911"

State Police Department

518-234-3131 or "911"

SUNY Cobleskill

<https://www.cobleskill.edu/titleix/index.aspx>

Title IX Resource Brochure

Resources and Policies for
Faculty, Staff and Students

Title IX

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance

The College has a duty to promptly respond to complaints of sexual harassment and sexual violence in a way that limits its effects and prevents its reoccurrence.

The Title IX Coordinator's responsibilities include overseeing all complaints of sex discrimination and identifying and addressing any patterns.

Sexual Violence

- Sexual Harassment
- Sexual Assault/ Forcible Touching
- Domestic/ Dating Violence
- Stalking

What to do

If someone tells you they have experienced sexual violence:

- Offer support, listen and encourage them to seek help and counseling as soon as possible
- If immediate safety is a concern, call 911
- Report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator
- Questions? Call the Title IX Coordinator at 518-255-5514

What to do

If you have experienced sexual violence:

- Get safe
- Get medical help
- Get emotional help and support

What to know

- It was not your fault
- You are in control
- Many resources are available to you on campus and in the community
- You have the right to choose whom and what to tell, and when
- If you report, you'll be taken seriously and treated with dignity and respect

SUNY Cobleskill

- Does not tolerate sexual harassment, sexual assault, relationship violence or stalking
- Does not tolerate retaliation against anyone reporting sexual violence or participating in an investigation or conduct process
- Has amnesty policy for alcohol/drug use in sexual violence cases.

Choose the options best for you

- Speak confidentially to a professional counselor
- Submit an anonymous report
- Report to law enforcement
- Report to Title IX

Who needs to report to Title IX?

Students, faculty and staff. If a student reports an incident to a faculty or staff member they believe has the authority or duty to address it, they are considered by the Office for Civil Rights to be a "responsible employee." They must promptly – within 24 hours – report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator on campus.

When in doubt on whether or not to report, contact the Title IX Coordinator 518-255-5229

Why you need to report

- To ensure the individual has access to all available resources and options
- For campus and community safety
- To comply with Title IX and other federal regulations

What to tell the individual

Their disclosures will be taken seriously, and they'll be treated with dignity and respect. Victim/ survivor privacy is carefully maintained, and they have the right to receive assistance from the College as well as the right to make a report to law enforcement.

Prohibition on retaliation

SUNY Cobleskill will not tolerate retaliation against anyone for filing a complaint or participating in an investigation.